REPORT

The Department of Malayalam at Paramekkavu College of Arts and Science conducted a National Mother Language Day celebration on February 21st on the college campus. All students of the department attended the seminar. The program began with a prayer led by students from the second-semester B.Sc. Computer Science and Applications.

Smt. Ramya K. and Smt. Limitha C. M., the seminar coordinators and Assistant Professors, were present, along with Smt. Ushadevi K., Head of the Department of English, who delivered the welcome speech and introduced the session to the audience. Prasanth Balakrishnan, Administrator of Paramekkavu Arts and Science College, delivered the presidential address. His opening remarks set a positive tone for the event, emphasizing the importance of the seminar topics.

The seminar was inaugurated by Dr. (Capt.) Suseela Menon R, Principal of Paramekkavu College.

On February 21st, the talk was delivered by Smt. Dr. Jisha Elizabeth Vargees, Assistant Professor at Vimala College (Autonomous), Thrissur. The student coordinator gave the vote of thanks at the end of the session. The resource persons highlighted the importance of the Malayalam language. An interactive session followed the talk, during which students asked questions and clarified their doubts.

The seminar series proved to be a valuable experience for the degree students and successfully achieved its objective of fostering innovative and creative thinking among the participants. The sessions were highly informative and well-received by all.
