Meeting Minutes: Interdepartmental Cricket Match at Paramekkavu College of Arts and Science for the Academic Year 2019-20

A meeting was held on 13/01/2020 to discuss the organization of an interdepartmental cricket match at Paramekkavu College of Arts and Science, organized by the Physical Education Department. The primary objective of the event was to foster camaraderie and healthy competition among different departments, while promoting physical fitness and team spirit. The meeting was chaired by Soman TB, the Head of the Physical Education Department.

The event was scheduled to take place on 24/01/2020 at 9.00 AM, with the venue being the college's sports ground. The match will be open to all departments, with each team consisting of 18 players. The teams will be formed based on voluntary participation, and department representatives are requested to submit their team rosters by 18/01/2020. A set of rules, including match duration and format, will be circulated ahead of the event to ensure fairness and smooth proceedings. In addition to the match itself, the department also discussed the arrangements for required sports equipment, including cricket bats, balls, wickets, and protective gear, which will be made available through the Physical Education Department. Volunteers and student coordinators will be assigned to assist with event logistics, including managing the teams, scores, and safety protocols. A small opening ceremony and prize distribution will also be organized to enhance the event's appeal. The meeting concluded with a call for enthusiastic participation from all departments and a reminder that this event aims to promote unity, team-building, and sportsmanship among students. Further details, including event guidelines, will be shared in due course.
